What we leave out makes the difference

Indoor air quality determines our well-being, performance, concentration, and health. Therefore, the choice of cleaning products is also crucial. The extensive new zero%-range from Green Care Professional pays special attention to air quality:

- Powerful range with 14 products
- No fragrances and therefore free from allergy triggers
- Particularly biodegradable
- High renewable carbon content

Fragrances and dyes do not affect the cleaning effect. What we leave out makes all the difference – without sacrificing performance!!
